

WHAT IS WRITERS' FESTIVAL

The Emerging Writers' Festival (EWF) is one of Australia's most established and well-respected literary festivals.

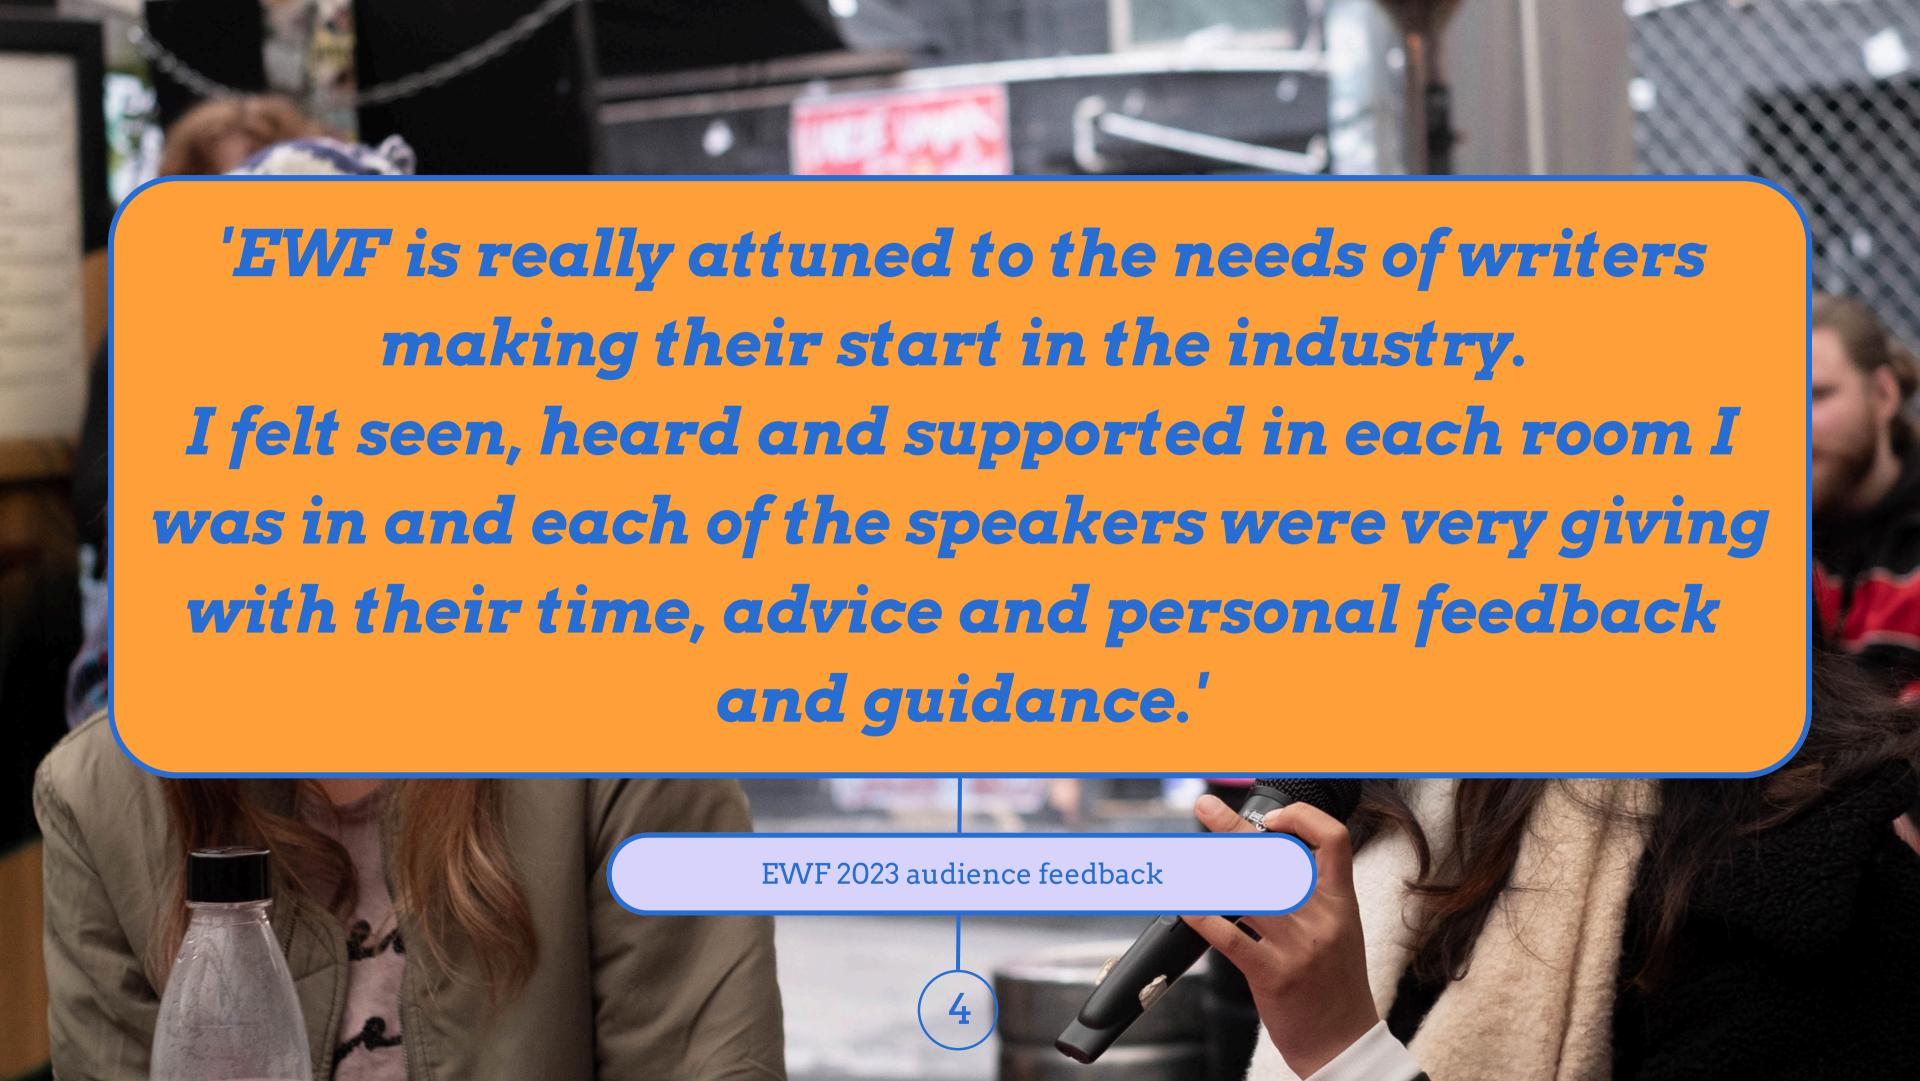

Since 2003, our national festival based in Naarm has been nurturing and promoting Australia's new writing talent, creating platforms for connecting writing communitiesand their audiences.

We are a place where creativity and innovation is elevated, where new talent is developed, and where diverse voices from across Australia are celebrated.

EWF BLOG FEATURE

EWF's blog is an ever-evolving space that makes its home on EWF's website. It is our most high-profile and ever-present form of advertising.

Competing with no algorithms or feeds, the EWF blog boasts an average monthly audience of 6k direct users from our website. If you're bursting to share a more extensive promotion or have a longform project you'd like to give a sneak preview of, an EWF Blog Feature could be just what you need.

EWF BLOG FEATURE

An EWF Blog Feature sees you collaborate with the Emerging Writers' Festival to create a bespoke feature or interview to promote your organisation/work/project.

This blog feature will consist of a 600-word (max.) piece, acknowledgement of your organisation's support, alongside your organisation's logo and hero image, with click-through to your website. Your blog feature will also be highlighted on our homepage for one week after intial posting.
